LINCOLN COUNTY FOR OLLIE JAMES

BIG CONGRESSMAN CAPTIVATES DEMOCRATS BY SPLENDID SPEECH SATURDAY

Congressman Ollie M. James, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, spoke to a large crowd in the court-house here Saturday afternoon, and gave his hearers one of the clearest expositions of the progressive democratic spirit which is sweeping the country that has ever been heard by a Lincoln county audience. The audience which heard him was one of the most representative which has ever assembled to hear a political speaking in this city, prominent democrats and leading members of other parties being present to hear this statesman who has won a nationwide reputation by the honesty and vigor of his fight for the people against the predatory interests during his twelve years in the lower House of Congress. So valiant and devoted has been his championship of the rights of the people that his friends believe he is justly entitled to promotion now when democracy seems on the verge of coming into her own again and her prospects are brilliant for the election of a democratic senate and president next year.

Congressman James clearly and vigorously denounced the republican robber tariff and showed, in words so simple, that a child could understand how the republican tariff had been framed to benefit the trusts and increase the burdens of the poor man. He devoted most of his speech to explanations of democratic doctrines for which he stands, and during the latter part of his address discussed at length the record which Senator Paynter has made during his six years in the Senate. He told of Paynter's pair with Guggenheim, the millionaire republican from Colorado, of whom it was said that "Colorado was put up to the highest bidder and Guggenheim bought it," and to clinch matters read Guggenheim's letter to Paynter in which the former explained that he came to vote on certain bills in the Senate when paired with Paynter by saying that he was not aware at the time of Paynter's absence from the Senate. Mr. James called attention to the fact that Paynter was a deskmate of Guggenheim, the latter for several weeks had not missed the Democratic senator from Kentucky. Mr. James promised that in the event he was elected Senator from Kentucky he would make Guggenheim and the other trusts magnates miss him every time he was out of the Senate Chamber.

Mr. James was warmly applauded throughout his whole address and received the closest attention from everyone, though he spoke for two hours and a quarter. When he concluded almost every man, woman and child in the courtroom came forward to shake his hand and tell him they would vote for him in the democratic primary on July 1. A number of leading democrats of Lincoln county who had hitherto declared their intention to support his opponent, Senator Paynter, boldly informed Mr. James that he had won them over by his splendid speech, and that they felt that the democracy of the state needed such a man and such a speaker as himself to help lead the fight against the common enemy this coming November.

A large number of democrats from Garrard and Boyle counties came over to hear Mr. James speak, and it was practically decided that he will speak at Lancaster next Saturday, May 27. He went on from here to speak at Danville Saturday night where he was greeted by a big crowd and received an enthusiastic ovation.

Leading democrats from all sections of Lincoln county say that James is sure to carry this county by a large majority. Many reports have been spread that large sums of money are to be spent here in the interest of Paynter, but the James men are confident that the unpurchasable democracy of the county will not permit their sentiment to be ruthlessly violated by the use of a corruption fund, no matter how large, and plans are already on foot for a strong James organization to bring out a full vote for him. It is believed that the big congressman will run almost as strong in Lincoln county as McCreary for Governor, and it is conceded that the Warhorse of Madison for Governor will sweep Lincoln county by a splendid plurality in both the primary and general election.

MAY TERM OF COURT BEGINS

JURIES DRAWN AND JUDGES DELIVER STRONG CHARGE ON OPENING DAY.

The May term of Circuit Court began Monday morning, with arduous complete docket, and some interesting litigation is promised during its course. The usual routine work of organization of the court occupied Monday morning, and the court was preparing to enter into the criminal docket when the I. J.'s report closed in the afternoon.

The grand and petit juries were impaneled, and Judge Walker delivered his charge and then called the docket. The members of the two juries are representative citizens of the county. They are:

Grand Jury:—L. C. King, H. C. Hill, B. D. Holtzclaw, S. D. Eads, Charles Piles, Thomas Ferrill, J. B. Honaker, T. L. Carpenter, E. T. Pence, C. C. Withers, Robert Nunneley and Porter Sandidge.

Petit Jury:—Sidney Dumber, Plato Cullip, Gus McCormack, George Gades, J. B. Myers, W. A. Hatcher, W. O. Walker, J. H. McAlister, J. P. Chandler, J. H. Goggin, T. J. Hill, Sam Castello, Sam Owens, F. P. Sandidge, W. R. Gains, Sam Bell Peyton Parrish, C. A. Redd, D. K. Farris, R. L. Berry, John Newell and A. M. Luce.

Judge Walker's charge to the grand jury was regarded as a splendid one by all who heard it. He covered the field thoroughly, and laid special stress upon violations of the election law, bribery, gambling, violations of local option law, and other infractions of the statutes which are so common in a community.

In the calling of the docket, Jeff Bryant, a local negro failed to answer to his name of a charge of carrying Walker declared his bond forfeited and concealed deadly weapons, so Judge sentenced him to ten days in jail and assessed a fine of $25 and costs against him. The full docket of the court for this term is found on another page.

SPLENDID SERMON TO THE GRADUATES

STARTS PROGRAM OF COMMENCEMENT WEEK FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL.

This is commencement week school is over and the sweet girl graduates and gallant young men are in their glory. Commencement exercises were formally inaugurated with the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Other churches in city gave way to this event and a large crowd heard the splendid sermon by Rev. A. A. Higgins and enjoyed the beautiful musical program.

Mr. Higgins expressed great pleasure at being called to this service in his home town among the people he so dearly loved. His text, "What Shall I do With Jesus, Which is called Christ?" Suggested a line both edifying and entertaining. The lesson drawn from it will linger long in the minds of young people for whom it was designed. He spoke with fluency and force, and his illustrations were apt and impressive. Expressions of appreciation were heard on every side of the entire service.

Class Day exercises by the Senior class will be held this morning at ten o'clock at the opera house.

The matinee recital will be held this afternoon at the opera house at three o'clock, and the annual Commencement Exercises Wednesday evening at the opera house at 8 P. M.

The annual recital takes place Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the opera house. Admission is free to all of the commencement entertainments except the last recital, the proceeds of which go for school purposes. The recitals are under the auspices of the departments of music, elocution and physical culture. Programs of the entertainments, which have not been printed before, are found in other columns of this issue.

There are seven graduates of the High School this year; Misses Sallie Burdette, Elizabeth Higgins, Emma Hays, Vera Totten, Joseph Hopper, Lester O'Bannon and Wallace Singleton.

LOCAL BOYS GET FOUR HOME RUNS

IN ONE-SIDED GAME AGAINST LANCASTER LAST WEEK— FINAL SCORE 15 TO 3.

For the second time this season, the Stanford High School ball team smothered the lads from Lancaster Saturday afternoon, the game being played here on last Thursday and the final score being 15 to 3. The game was featured by heavy slugging of the local lads, for once they got their eye on the ball a total of four home runs were batted out. Errors on the part of the visitors helped in the run making, and for a while it looked like a merry-go-around the bases.

Doty pitched good ball for Lancaster at spells, but the poor support accorded him at stages was enough to make the best pitchers take to aviation. Singleton started the game for Stanford, and while the visitors hit him rather easy during the six innings he officiated, he kept their bingles well scattered, and their three runs were all due to errors on the part of local fielders. After the visitors had scored twice in the sixth, Capt. McCarty sent Embury to the firing line in the seventh and he held the Garry lads runless during the rest of the game and allowed them but one hit.

Mike Penny led the local lads in batting, getting a home run, a single and three bagger out of five times up. The other home run kids were McCarty, Singleton, and Embury. Each was presented with a handsome necktie by that progressive gent's' furnisher H. J. McKoberts, who has had a standing offer of a necktie for a home run and a sodawater for each run made by the Stanford players.

Stanford worked three of her substitutes during the game and all showed up nicely. None of the three got a hit, but they swung well. Tom Coleman caught two flies in left field, Spalding Hill smugged one as did Anderson. The score was:
